JURISDICTION

3. The Court has original jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1121 and 28 U.S.C. § 1331 as this action arises under the Federal Trademark Act of 1946, as amended, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1124-1125 ("the Lanham Act"). The Court has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367. The Court also has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332, as this case is a civil action between citizens of different states and citizens or subjects of a foreign state, and in which the matter in controversy will exceed, exclusive of costs and interests, seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000.00).

RESPONSE: The allegations set forth in paragraph 3 constitute a legal conclusion for the purposes of establishing jurisdiction with this Court, and thereof, no response is believed to be required. To the extent a response is required, SlumberPod is without sufficient information to determine the accuracy of the remaining allegations of this paragraph, and there denies them.

4. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant SLUMBERPOD because Defendant (a) markets, distributes and sells its products throughout the United States, including to customers within this District through Amazon and through prominent retailers, including Target stores, located within this District, (b) has engaged in tortious and wrongful conduct directed to harm residents of this District, including Plaintiff, (c) has purposefully directed its activities to the State of California, and (d) has purposefully availed itself of the privilege of conducting business activities within the State of California, thus invoking the benefits and protections of its laws. Venue is proper in this District under 28 U.S.C. Section 1391(b)(2) because, inter alia, a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claims occurred in this District, and because Defendants are subject to personal jurisdiction in this District.

1       RESPONSE: The allegations set forth in paragraph 4 constitute a legal
2 conclusion for the purposes of establishing jurisdiction with this Court, and 3 thereof, no response is believed to be required. To the extent a response is 4 required, SlumberPod admits that its products are sold throughout the United 5 States, including to customers within this District through Amazon and Target.
6 The remaining allegations of this paragraph are denied.

7                               DIVISIONAL ASSIGNMENT

8           5.       Assignment to this division in proper pursuant to Local Rule 3-2 (c)
9 and (e) because this action arises in the County of Contra Costa as a substantial
10 part of the events giving rise to the claims occurred in the County of Contra Costa
11 and throughout this District.

12       RESPONSE: SlumberPod is without sufficient information to determine the 13 accuracy of the allegations of this paragraph, and there denies them.

14                               FACTUAL BACKGROUND

15       6.       KEEZIO markets, distributes, and sells its line of products, most 16 notably, its "hiccapop" line of children's products throughout the United States,
17 including the San Francisco Bay Area, primarily on the Amazon online retail sales
18 platform. Amazon is an online retail outlet that sells consumer products, computing
19 services and digital content, among other products and services. KEEZIO markets
20 its brands as "Amazon-Exclusive" brands because its core management team has a
21 long and valued relationship with Amazon spanning nearly 20 years. KEEZIO
22 strategically utilizes the Amazon platform as the primary sales outlet for its 23 products due to the simplicity and ease of use of the platform for its customers.
24 One product in KEEZIO's hiccapop line is an anytime-anywhere blackout tent, that 25 fits over most playards, inflatable toddler beds, toddler cots and mini cribs, known
26 as the "Hiccapop DayDreamer Blackout Tent for Pack `n Play" ("DayDreamer"), 27
28

1 which was designed and manufactured over a two-year process and recently
2 released on the Amazon platform in November 2023.

3 RESPONSE: SlumberPod admits that Keezio sells its “Hiccapop
4 DayDreamer Blackout Tent for Pack ‘n Play” on Amazon and that Amazon is an 5 online retail outlet that sells consumer products, computing services and digital
6 content, among other products and services. SlumberPod is without sufficient 7 information to determine the accuracy of all of the remining allegations of this 8 paragraph, and there denies them.

9 7. On information and belief, Defendant SLUMBERPOD markets a line
10 of products, including infant sleep systems, on the Amazon platform and through 11 prominent retailers, including Target stores, throughout California and within this 12 District, including a "Portable Sleep Pod Baby Blackout Canopy Crib Cover" that 13 is similar to Plaintiff's DayDreamer. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that 14 SLUMBERPOD and/or affiliated persons or entities own(s) a U.S. patent
15 associated with its canopy crib cover product - U.S. Patent 11,617,450 entitled 16 "Crib Accessory" (hereinafter "the `450 Patent").

17 RESPONSE: SlumberPod admits that it sells its products via Amazon and 18 to Target for distribution nationwide, including its portable privacy sleep nook
19 product. SlumberPod's product was on the market years before Plaintiff's 20 DayDreamer product, but the two products can be fairly described as similar.
21 Moreover, SlumberPod is the owner of U.S. Patent 11,617,450 entitled “Crib 22 Accessory”.

23 8. On or about November 27, 2023, counsel for SLUMBPOD forwarded
24 a letter erroneously addressed to "Jianguo Zheng d/b/a Hiccapop" to the email
25 address info@hiccapop.com ("the November 27 Infringement Letter"). In the 26 November 27 Infringement letter, SLUMBERPOD's counsel makes make the 27 unsubstantiated assertion that Plaintiff's DayDreamer product "infringes one or 28

1 more claims of the '450 Patent" and demands that all parties immediately "cease
2 and desist all selling or offering to sell these infringing products and withdraw
3 these infringing products as well as their advertisement from the marketplace," 4 among other aggressive demands.

5 RESPONSE: SlumberPod admits that its counsel forwarded a letter dated 6 November 27, 2023 to "Jianguo Zheng d/b/a/ Hiccapop" and also
7 info@hiccapop.com. The document speaks for itself, and as such no further
8 response is believed to be necessary. To the extent a response is required, 9 SlumberPod denies the remaining allegations of the paragraph.

10 9. After reviewing the November 27 Infringement Letter, KEEZIO
11 discovered that, on or prior to November 27, 2023, purposefully and with the 12 specific intention of maligning KEEZIO's products (including the DayDreamer),
13 tradename and business reputation, and in connection with promoting its products
14 to Amazon, SLUMBERPOD filed a malicious and knowingly false complaint with 15 Amazon alleging that KEEZIO's DayDreamer product infringed upon the '450
16 Patent owned or controlled by SLUMBERPOD. KEEZIO further discovered that, 17 as a direct and proximate result of SLUMBERPOD's malicious and knowingly 18 false infringement complaint, Amazon immediately and without any 19 communication or advance notice to KEEZIO, suspended KEEZIO's rights to 20 market and sell its DayDreamer product and removed the product from the 21 Amazon online retail sales platform, resulting in substantial injury to KEEZIO's 22 brand, tradename, and long-established business relationship, as well as pecuniary 23 loss attributable to lost sales of its products.

24 RESPONSE: SlumberPod admits that on November 27, 2023 its counsel
25 filed Complaint ID 14372749121 with Amazon under the APEX program alleging 26 infringement of the '450 Patent by Plaintiff's DayDreamer, which resulted in the 27
28

1 removal of the DayDreamer product from Amazon by Amazon according to its
2 own APEX rules and procedures. The remainder of the allegations are denied.

3 10. After receiving notification that its DayDreamer product had been 4 suspended by Amazon, KEEZIO, through its legal counsel, immediately
5 corresponded with SLUMBERPOD' s counsel by letter on November 29, 2023, 6 addressing and refuting the infringement claim in detail, and demanding the 7 immediate retraction of the baseless infringement claim communicated to Amazon.
8 Additionally, to eliminate any potential infringement concerns, KEEZIO engaged 9 its patent counsel to thoroughly review and evaluate the DayDreamer product for 10 potential infringement on the '450 Patent. Upon completing that review, KEEZIO'
11 s patent counsel issued a legal opinion conclusively establishing that KEEZIO's 12 DayDreamer product did not infringe upon '450 Patent owned and/or controlled by 13 SLUMBERPOD ("the Non-Infringement Opinion"). True and correct copies of 14 KEEZIO counsel's November 29 letter and the Non-Infringement Opinion are 15 attached to this complaint as Exhibit "A" and are incorporated herein by this 16 reference.

17 RESPONSE: SlumberPod admits that its counsel received the November 29
18 letter from Plaintiff's counsel and that the copy contained in Exhibit A is a true and 19 accurate copy thereof. The document speaks for itself, however, the November
20 29th letter was delivered via e-mail at 5:02 PM EST / 2:02 PST and demanded a
21 retraction of the infringement complaint by 8:00 PM EST / 5:00 PM PST. Counsel
22 for SlumberPod did not see the November 29th letter until the morning of 23 November 30th. SlumberPod is without sufficient information to determine the 24 accuracy of the allegations of this paragraph, and there denies them.

25 11. Notwithstanding KEEZIO's demand therefor, purposefully and with 26 the specific and malicious intention of harming and maligning KEEZIO' s brand, 27 business reputation and pecuniary interests, SLUMBERPOD has failed, and as of the filing of this action, continues to fail to retract its baseless infringement claim with full knowledge that KEEZIO has not violated the '450 Patent, or any other intellectual property rights of SLUMBERPOD, or violated any law at all with respect to the promotion, advertisement or sale of its DayDreamer product. Moreover, despite KEEZIO's ongoing efforts to appeal the suspension and removal of its DayDreamer product from the Amazon sales platform, as of the filing of this action, the DayDreamer remains suspended by Amazon during the height of the holiday selling season, and KEEZIO has suffered and continues to suffer substantial and continuing injury to its brand, tradename, and pecuniary interests each day that the suspension of its DayDreamer product by Amazon continues.

RESPONSE: All of the allegations in paragraph 11 are denied. As a result of Plaintiff's counter-notification under the APEX program, Amazon reinstated Plaintiff's DayDreamer product for sale on Amazon on or about December 5, 2023. No retraction by SlumberPod of its complaint to Amazon is necessary as its complaint under APEX is no longer relevant as Plaintiff's product has been reinstated and pending litigation trumps the APEX program.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Violation of § 43(a) of the Lanham Act – 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a))

12. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates paragraphs 1 through 11, inclusive, as though fully set forth herein.

RESPONSE: SlumberPod refers to and incorporates its responses to all preceding paragraphs by reference as though fully set forth herein.

13. In connection with the promotion of Defendant's products to Amazon, Defendant has disseminated and/or caused others to disseminate into interstate commerce false and misleading statements concerning Plaintiff and its products by filing malicious and knowingly false complaints with Amazon alleging that Plaintiff's DayDreamer product infringed upon the '450 Patent owned or controlled

1 by Defendant SLUMBERPOD in violation of § 43(a) of the Lanham Act. The 2 knowingly false infringement complaints filed by Defendant in connection with the 3 promotion of Defendant's products to Amazon constitute false and misleading
4 representations of fact that are likely to confuse, mislead and deceive Amazon as to 5 the nature, characteristics, and qualities of Plaintiff's products, including the 6 DayDreamer. Defendant's knowingly false infringement complaints were 7 maliciously intended to injure, and have injured Plaintiff's brand, business
8 reputation and pecuniary interests, by, inter alia, directly causing the suspension
9 and removal of Plaintiff's DayDreamer product from the Amazon online retail sales
10 platform. Unless immediately enjoined by this Court, Defendant's malicious and 11 unlawful conduct will continue to confuse, mislead, and deceive as to the nature, 12 characteristics, and qualities of Plaintiffs products, including DayDreamer, and 13 will continue to cause injury to Plaintiff's brand, business reputation and pecuniary 14 interests.

15 RESPONSE: Denied.

16 14. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's unlawful acts and 17 practices as herein alleged, Defendants' conduct has caused, and unless 18 immediately enjoined by this Court will continue to cause, irreparable harm to 19 Plaintiffs business, reputation, and goodwill for which there is no adequate remedy
20 at law, and for which Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief. Additionally,
21 Defendant's unlawful acts and practices described herein are, and unless enjoined
22 by this Court will continue to be in violation of § 43(a) of the Lanham Act.

23 RESPONSE: Denied.

24 15. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct
25 herein alleged, Plaintiff has suffered, and continues to suffer damages, including 26 lost sales and profits, in a total amount presently unknown and to be determined at 27
28

1 trial according to proof, but which Plaintiff reasonably estimates will exceed
2 $75,000.00.

3 RESPONSE: Denied.

4 16. Further, by virtue of Defendant's purposeful and knowing violation of 5 § 43(a) of the Lanham Act (25 U.S.C. § 1125(a)), and in addition to the recovery
6 of Plaintiff's damages and the injunctive relief requested herein, Plaintiff is entitled 7 to recovery of Defendant's profits, costs of this action, reasonable attorney's fees,
8 as well as all other monetary amounts, including treble damages, as specified in 15
9 U.S.C. § 1117(a).

10 RESPONSE: The allegations set forth in paragraph 16 constitute a legal 11 conclusion, and therefore, a response is not required. To the extent a response is 12 required, denied.

13 SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

14 (Trade Libel)

15 17. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates paragraphs 1 through 11,
16 inclusive, as though fully set forth herein.

17 RESPONSE: SlumberPod refers to and incorporates its responses to all
18 preceding paragraphs by reference as though fully set forth herein.

19 18. As hereinabove alleged, Defendant has repeatedly made statements
20 alleging patent infringement by Plaintiff that would clearly be understood to have 21 disparaged (a) the desirability and quality of Plaintiff's products, including 22 DayDreamer, and (b) Plaintiff's brand and business reputation ("the Statements").

23 RESPONSE: Denied.

24 19. Defendant made and published the Statements to a person other than 25 Plaintiff.

26 RESPONSE: Denied.

1           20. The Statements were and are untrue, and were made without 2 justification or privilege.

3           RESPONSE: Denied.

4           21. At the time Defendant made and published the Statements, Defendant
5 knew the Statements were untrue, or acted with reckless disregard as to the truth or 6 falsity of the Statements.

7           RESPONSE: Denied.

8           22. At the time Defendant made and published the Statements, Defendant
9 knew or should have known that third parties might act in reliance on the 10 Statements, causing financial losses and/or injury to Plaintiff.

11           RESPONSE: Denied.

12           23. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' publication of the 13 Statements, Amazon suspended and removed Plaintiff's DayDreamer product from 14 the Amazon online retail sales platform and Plaintiff has suffered, and continues to 15 suffer damages, including lost sales and profits, in a total amount presently
16 unknown and to be determined at trial according to proof, but which Plaintiff
17 reasonably estimates will exceed $75,000.00.

18           RESPONSE: Denied.

19           24. Defendant's publication of the Statements was a substantial factor in 20 causing the harm to Plaintiff herein alleged.

21           RESPONSE: Denied.

22                           THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

23                           (Intention Interference with Contractual Relations)

24           25. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates paragraphs 1 through 11, inclusive, 25 as though fully set forth herein.

26           RESPONSE: SlumberPod refers to and incorporates its responses to all
27 preceding paragraphs by reference as though fully set forth herein.
28

1           26. Plaintiff has, and at all relevant times herein mentioned has had, valid
2 and existing contractual relationships with Amazon and with Plaintiff's customers
3 who purchase Plaintiff's children's products, including DayDreamer, on Amazon's
4 online retail sales platform.

5           RESPONSE: SlumberPod is without sufficient information to determine the
6 accuracy of the allegations of this paragraph, and there denies them.

7           27. Defendants are aware, and at all relevant times herein mentioned have
8 been aware of the contractual relationships between Plaintiff and Amazon and
9 between Plaintiff and its customers.

10           RESPONSE: Denied.

11           28. By engaging in the wrongful acts hereinabove alleged, specifically, the 12 repeated assertion of malicious and knowingly false claims of patent infringement, 13 Defendants knowingly and intentionally disrupted plaintiff's contractual and 14 economic relationships with Amazon and with Plaintiff's customers by inducing
15 Amazon to suspend and remove Plaintiff's DayDreamer product from the Amazon
16 online retail sales platform. By engaging in the conduct alleged herein, Defendants
17 knew that Plaintiff would suffer harm from the disruption of its contractual 18 relationships with Amazon and Plaintiff's customers.

19           RESPONSE: Denied.

20           29. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants intentional acts herein
21 alleged, the contractual relationships of Plaintiff described herein have been, and 22 continue to be actually disrupted in that Defendants' malicious infringement claims
23 have induced Amazon to suspend and remove Plaintiff's DayDreamer product from 24 the Amazon online retail sales platform. Defendants' conduct has caused, and will 25 continue to cause, irreparable harm to Plaintiff's business interests, and has 26 significantly damaged plaintiff's contractual relationships described herein.

27           RESPONSE: Denied.
28

1           30. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct
2 herein alleged, Plaintiff has suffered, and continues to suffer damages, including
3 lost sales and profits, in a total amount presently unknown and to be determined at
4 trial according to proof, but which Plaintiff reasonably estimates will exceed 5 $75,000.00.

6           RESPONSE: Denied.

7           31. The acts of Defendants described herein were willful, fraudulent,
8 malicious, and oppressive and in conscious disregard of the rights of Plaintiff, and
9 were taken with knowledge that such acts would cause harm to Plaintiff. Plaintiff
10 is therefore entitled to exemplary and punitive damages.

11           RESPONSE: Denied.

12                           FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

13                   (Intention Interference with Prospective Economic Advantage)

14           32. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates paragraphs 1 through 11,
15 inclusive, as though fully set forth herein.

16           RESPONSE: SlumberPod refers to and incorporates its responses to all
17 preceding paragraphs by reference as though fully set forth herein.

18           33. Plaintiff has, and at all relevant times herein mentioned has had, valid
19 and existing contractual relationships with Amazon and with Plaintiff's customers
20 who purchase Plaintiff's children's products, including DayDreamer, on Amazon's
21 online retail sales platform. Additionally, Plaintiff has prospective economic 22 relationships with Amazon and with its customers, with the probability of 23 significant, future economic benefit to Plaintiff as a result of these economic 24 relationships.

25           RESPONSE: SlumberPod is without sufficient information to determine the 26 accuracy of the allegations of this paragraph, and there denies them.

1           34. Defendants are aware, and at all relevant times herein mentioned have
2 been aware of the contractual relationships between Plaintiff and Amazon and
3 between Plaintiff and its customers.

4           RESPONSE: Denied.

5           35. By engaging in the wrongful acts hereinabove alleged, specifically,
6 the repeated assertion of malicious and knowingly false claims of Patent
7 infringement as hereinabove alleged, Defendants knowingly and intentionally
8 disrupted plaintiff's contractual and economic relationships, and the prospective
9 economic benefits thereof, with Amazon and with Plaintiff's customers described
10 herein by inducing Amazon to suspend and remove Plaintiff's DayDreamer product
11 from the Amazon online retail sales platform. By engaging in the conduct alleged 12 herein, Defendants knew that Plaintiff would suffer harm from the disruption of its 13 contractual relationships with Amazon and Plaintiff's customers.

14           RESPONSE: Denied.

15           36. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct
16 herein alleged, Plaintiff has suffered, and continues to suffer damages, including 17 lost sales and profits, in a total amount presently unknown and to be determined at 18 trial according to proof, but which Plaintiff reasonably estimates will exceed 19 $75,000.00.

20           RESPONSE: Denied.

21           37. The acts of Defendants described herein were willful, fraudulent,
22 malicious, and oppressive and in conscious disregard of the rights of Plaintiff and
23 were taken with knowledge that such acts would cause harm to Plaintiff. Plaintiff
24 is therefore entitled to exemplary and punitive damages.

25           RESPONSE: Denied.
26
27
28

FIFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Violation of Unfair Competition Law)

[Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200 et seq.]

38. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates paragraphs 1 through 12, inclusive, as though fully set forth herein.

RESPONSE: SlumberPod refers to and incorporates its responses to all preceding paragraphs by reference as though fully set forth herein.

39. By engaging in the wrongful acts hereinabove alleged, specifically, the repeated assertion of malicious and knowingly false claims of Patent infringement as hereinabove alleged, defendants have engaged in unlawful, fraudulent, and/or unfair business practices in violation of California Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq., designed to deprive Plaintiff of the economic benefits of its established business relationships with Amazon and with its customers, and which gives Defendants a competitive advantage in the retail sale of its products on the Amazon platform.

RESPONSE: Denied.

40. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct herein alleged, Plaintiff has suffered, and continues to suffer damages, including lost sales and profits, in a total amount presently unknown and to be determined at trial according to proof, but which Plaintiff reasonably estimates will exceed $75,000.00.

RESPONSE: Denied.

41. Pursuant to California Business and Professions Code section 17203, Plaintiff is entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief ordering Defendants to cease this unfair competition, as well as disgorgement of all of Defendants' profits associated with this unlawful competition.

1       RESPONSE: The allegations set forth in paragraph 41 constitute a legal
 2 conclusion, and therefore, a response is not required. To the extent a response is
 3 required, denied.

4                               SIXTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

5                               (Unjust Enrichment)

6       42. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates paragraphs 1 through 11,
 7 inclusive, as though fully set forth herein.

8       RESPONSE: SlumberPod refers to and incorporates its responses to all
 9 preceding paragraphs by reference as though fully set forth herein.

10      43. By engaging in the conduct described above, Defendants have 11 benefited and continue to benefit from their wrongdoing and have been unjustly
 12 enriched by reaping the benefits of its unlawful activities, all to Plaintiff's injury
 13 and damage.

14      RESPONSE: Denied.

15      44. Under the circumstances of this case, it would be inequitable for 16 Defendants to retain the benefits unjustly received from their wrongful actions
 17 herein alleged without repaying the lost value and benefit to Plaintiff.

18      RESPONSE: Denied.

19      45. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct
 20 herein alleged, Plaintiff has suffered, and continues to suffer damages, including 21 lost sales and profits, in a total amount presently unknown and to be determined at
 22 trial according to proof, but which Plaintiff reasonably estimates will exceed 23 $75,000.00.

24      RESPONSE: Denied.

25                               SEVENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

26                               (Injunctive Relief)

27      46. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates paragraphs 1 through 13,
 28

1 inclusive, as though fully set forth herein.

2 RESPONSE: SlumberPod refers to and incorporates its responses to all
3 preceding paragraphs by reference as though fully set forth herein.

4 47. By engaging in the conduct described above, Defendants have
5 willfully and purposefully harmed Plaintiff and have benefited and continue to 6 benefit from their wrongdoing, all to Plaintiff's injury and damage. The conduct of 7 Defendants in maliciously interfering with Plaintiff's contractual relationships and 8 prospective economic advantage, and in violation of the statutory provisions above
9 referenced, constitute a continuing injury to and interference with Plaintiff's
10 business, which diminishes Plaintiff's profits, and which cannot be fully and 11 adequately compensated in damages.

12 RESPONSE: Denied.

13 48. Unless an injunction is issued prohibiting Defendants from violating 14 Plaintiff's contractual and statutory rights as hereinabove alleged, Plaintiff will 15 continue to suffer irreparable harm to its brand, tradename and long-established
16 business relationships, and Plaintiff will have no adequate remedy at law.

17 RESPONSE: Denied.

18 49. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks a preliminary and permanent injunction
19 prohibiting Defendants from maliciously interfering with Plaintiff's contractual 20 relationships and prospective economic advantage as hereinabove alleged in 21 violation of Plaintiff's contractual and statutory rights.

22 RESPONSE: Denied.

23 EIGHTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

24 (Declaratory Relief)

25 50. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates paragraphs 1 through 11,
26 inclusive, as though fully set forth herein.

27 RESPONSE: SlumberPod refers to and incorporates its responses to all
28 preceding paragraphs by reference as though fully set forth herein.

1           51. An actual controversy has arisen and now exists between Plaintiff and 2 Defendants concerning their respective rights and duties in that Plaintiff maintains 3 that its DayDreamer product does not infringe upon the '450 Patent owned and/or 4 controlled by Defendants whereas Defendants dispute this contention and maintain 5 that their patent rights have been infringed.

6           RESPONSE: The allegations set forth in paragraph 51 constitute a legal
7 conclusion, and therefore, a response is not required. To the extent a response is
8 required, SlumberPod is without sufficient information to determine the accuracy
9 of the allegations of this paragraph, and there denies them.

10           52. Plaintiff desires a judicial determination of the parties' respective 11 rights and duties relative to the conflicting claims. A judicial declaration is 12 necessary and appropriate at this time under the circumstances in order that 13 Plaintiff may ascertain its rights and duties and obtain a fair and just adjudication 14 of the dispute.

15           RESPONSE: The allegations set forth in paragraph 52 constitute a legal 16 conclusion, and therefore, a response is not required. To the extent a response is
17 required, SlumberPod is without sufficient information to determine the accuracy
18 of the allegations of this paragraph, and there denies them.

19                           PRAYER FOR RELIEF

20           WHEREFORE, SlumberPod prays that judgment be entered in its 21 favor as follows:

- 22           1. Plaintiff take nothing by way of this action;

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

1. Plaintiff has failed to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

2. There has been no damage to Plaintiff as alleged.

7. Plaintiff failed to take reasonable steps to protect itself from the damages alleged in the Complaint and has failed to mitigate any such damage.

8. To the extent Plaintiff may have suffered any loss or damaged at all, which SlumberPod denies, such alleged loss or damages were not proximately caused by the acts or omissions of SlumberPod.

10. Plaintiff's claim of trade libel is barred to the extent that any of SlumberPod's alleged statements were truthful and/or reasonably believed to be true without malice.

11. Plaintiff's claim of trade libel is barred because SlumberPod's alleged statements are protected by the qualified privilege provided by California Civil Code section 47, as statements made to interested persons without malice.

12. California law fails to recognize Plaintiff's alleged "unjust enrichment" as a separate cause of action, rather it is a remedy.
